

Grade IV: Signs of severe venous insufficiency – lipodermatosclerosis or healed ulceration. These patients are at risk of developing ulcers and should be referred

